

FIGHTING WAGE THEFT: OPPORTUNITIES IN 2012

Luncheon Program
Noon – Wednesday, January 25, 2012
at the historic Woman’s National Democratic Club

Speaker

Ms. Kim Bobo

Executive Director and Founder of Interfaith Worker Justice

Ms. Kim Bobo will address the ways in which the crisis of wage theft is affecting Americans and how attorneys are participating with community organizations to fight back.

Kim is the Executive Director and founder of Interfaith Worker Justice, the nation’s largest network of people of faith engaging in local and national actions to improve wages, benefits and conditions for workers, especially those in the low-wage economy. She was named one of Utne Reader’s “50 Visionaries Who Are Changing Your World” in 2009.

Prior to Interfaith Worker Justice, Kim was a trainer for the Midwest Academy, and Director of Organizing for Bread for the World. She writes a column for the online magazine Religion Dispatches. She is co-author of Organizing for Social Change, the best-selling organizing manual in the country, and the author of Wage Theft in America: Why Millions of Working Americans Are Not Getting Paid - And What We Can Do About It, the first and only book to document the wage theft crisis in the nation and propose practical solutions for addressing it. A second edition of Wage Theft in America will be out for Labor Day, 2011.

Please RSVP and join the discussion on Wednesday, January 25.
